JUNIOR HOUSE

Junior House at King William's College

Junior House

As the name suggests, Junior House was originally the boarding house for the Junior School of King William's College.

It is a self contained House located away from the main King William's College buildings, offering Youth Hostel type accommodation.

Junior House has been subject to a recent refurbishment programme including the installation of a self catering kitchen, and plans for a new laundry room are in progress.

The Location

- Junior House is adjacent to the Ronaldsway airport and a half hour drive from the Ferry terminus in Douglas.
- The building is surrounded by 40 acres of playing fields.
- There are additional recreational facilities available such as a swimming pool*, squash courts and tennis/netball courts.
- It is located near to the Castletown Golf Links golf course, one of the island's premier golf courses.
- Historic sites such as Castle Rushen, the House of Keys and Rushen Abbey are within easy reach.
- Beautiful coastal walks can be enjoyed from this location.
- There are easy transport links, as it is on the main bus route to Douglas.
- The steam train station (operational during the summer months only) is within walking distance.
- Restaurants and pubs are located in close proximity.
- Catering and conferencing facilities are available on site.
- Car parking is available.
